Partner Resource Toolkit

September 2021

PENINSULA

3 EASY STEPS TO MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TOOLKIT

1 Choose one or more elements from the toolkit below to share with your members and associates e.g., an article, guide, etc.

2 Select which of your channels you would like to share this on, e.g., social media, newsletter, or your website.

3 Use the suggested copy we have included for you on your preferred channel(s).

Resource/Title	Suggested copy

Articles

The essentials of effective employee absence management

Peninsula knows how frustrating employee absences can be for employers. That's why they've outlined how to effectively manage absences in their helpful article.

Read Article

How to attract and retain great employees

Building a team that leads your business toward success is one thing, keeping it together is another. Peninsula's article explains how you can attract and retain great employees.

Read Article

Guides

Unfair Dismissal

Certain standards need to be met when letting an employee go. Not undertaking a fair procedure could lead to unfair dismissal – and an employee claim. Peninsula's guide outlines how to avoid an unfair dismissal situation.

Access Guide

Disciplinary action at work —law and procedures

In certain circumstances, you may need to take disciplinary action against an employee. While the reasons for doing so may vary, the laws and procedures don't. Peninsula's guide explains what disciplinary action is and how to undertake a disciplinary procedure.

Access Guide

Free Downloads

Managing Underperforming Staff

Peninsula's free download explains how to manage underperforming staff, understand the importance of an effective performance policy, and much more in seven simple steps.

Get Free Download

Health & Safety checklist for employees working from home

A new employee right to request remote work is set to be introduced later this year. When setting an employee up to work remotely, make sure you tick each box on Peninsula's health & safety checklist.

Get Free Download